

RECALL PROCEDURES

1. Contact Cadex factory (Canada) at 1-450-348-6774 to speak with a representative who will explain you how to proceed.
2. Provide the following information to Cadex:
 - a. Your name
 - b. Your address
 - c. Phone number
 - d. Your email address
 - e. Serial number of your Cadex rifle (if applicable)
 - f. Caliber of your rifle
 - g. Color of your muzzle brake
 - h. Point of purchase
3. Disassemble the recalled muzzle brake from your rifle and wait for your new muzzle brake to arrive from the transporter.
4. Return your muzzle brake to Cadex following this procedure:
 - a. Use a permanent marker to write your serial number and RMA# on the recalled muzzle brake (or a tag).
 - b. Repack the recalled muzzle brake using the same box. Stick the provided return shipping label on the box and drop the box to the transporter closest drop off. (If there's no drop off point near you contact the transporter for a pick up)
5. Reinstall your new muzzle brake using the provided procedure.
6. Enjoy your new muzzle brake.
